Thursday

My dear Don -

I have just finished answering all the Mother's Day - Nana cards. It makes me very aware of the size of our family.

I missed seeing a L'au letter in my box - but I know you think you are giving me a rest from sending my thoughts to the past. At my age that can't be done - ~~far~~ ^{while} ~~what~~ there is no future in past memories - There also isn't too much future in ~~today~~ today.

When memories carry a bit of spirit with them - you can't escape. I am glad there are many memories in my past with a spot of spirit. Those of Ernest have a lot of spirit.

Georgi sent me Jeanne Dixons book - "Yesterday, Today and Forever." Oh. how close for me hits the mark. Aug - 24th.
I always want to make things perfect for everyone around me and I am painfully conventional.
Recently I was upset because a minister whom I have never met - sent me a letter -
"Dear Margie."

All is well with me here.
Today was hot beyond reason - 99° and I had to go out in it. I ~~am~~ am spoiled by this perfect temperature of my room.
Sid Jr. was here last week for three days. We always have such a satisfactory time together. We don't have to agree to end with the feeling that we do agree. I am so lucky to have him to take over all business things.

I have never wanted to think about money. I know I can have any thing I really want - but there isn't too much that I really want.

Enough for now - It is late.

Love, and to your both -

Marge -
