

Dear Don & Ruth -

Thursday
Xmas Note
Dec. 1980

A friend sent several pictures like ~~those~~ saying I would probably never get another as good. She is probably right.

I am ~~nearly~~ well. So glad to be here again. California is great, but rather too, too.

It is strange how I continue to get haunted by E Hemingway.
Both George and Carl, Pudge's daughters, are Hemingway fans.
I am not. He hurt too many people and told too many lies.
Those things don't seem to matter to other people who only see his fame.
To be honest - I should say genius.
I see the person who wouldn't have told those lies to hurt people.

Have a good Christmas.

Love

Marge.
