Dear Don,

All I can say is My' Oh My⁸. It sure doesn't pay to know someone who becomes famous. I am glad I have learned to let it slide. The stories you have heard would make a more interesting story than the truth, however, it would be difficult to fit them in to the element of time or character. Why would Ernest have been considered such a catch from my mother's point of view?? How could Ruth have known anything about it? They give me a capacity for love or hate far beyond the realm of a high school student. I do understand Ruth wanting to seem important, and whoever said the other. Was it Sunny?

Is Carl Edgar still living? He can tell you that I didn't go into a decline over Ernest. I don't believe he and Ernest ever liked each other a lot. They were entirely different.

The writing on the back of the picture was there when E. gave me the picture. At first he was going to send me a copy, but then decided to give me that one. Don't know who wrote it.

Going back, could you imagine my grandmother remaining friends with Ernest had he hurt me in any way?

I am glad to know something about you and Ruth. I am sure you have interesting lives. Hope you have success with this venture and I am glad to help any way I can. There is no need to set any dead line on the pictures. It is better to take time to get what you need. I shudder to think what questions you may have, but bring them on. There is a tiny little reason why Ruth S. might want to stick pins in me, but no connection with E. Later in Ishpeming.

Regards to you, Ruth and Danny,

Marge -

Charles Graham had a nephew (Franklin) who used to visit, and took Pudge about some. He lives in Detroit and comes to the Petoskey area sometimes. You may have gotten the name from someone who knows him.
