Dear Don,

This isn't about Ernest. I am taking a two week vacation from thinking about him and I already feel better. I slept most of yesterday. Today I play bridge and go out for dinner.

Yesterday in looking for something, I came across the packet marked genealogy and looked at it. There was a rough draft of a paper Grandmother gave for some meeting. It was about the very early days in Petoskey and the founding of the Methodist Church there. Reference was made to the first Pailthorps, in fact to Miss Jessie Wescott before she married Judge Pailthorp. She mentioned the first Mc Cunes, Jennings, Connables. Mr Connable became Superendendant of the Sunday School and his wife formed an orchestra. It is in Grandmothers handwriting and very clear.

In looking over genealogy I find there were ministers, doctors and lawyers. Someone gave materially to the founding of Harvard College. I could have several bars on D.A.R. pin if such things interested me. Grandmother had me enrolled in 1923, but I resigned the following year.

Must dash. I have a busy day ahead.

I really do like you.

Marg.
