Dear Don,

The tempo of my life has changed almost as drastically as yours. Summer time is here. I swim in the pool twice a day. A friend is here from the Eastern Shore of Md. I am also learning to run the switchboard as my project of something new to learn. Today I had the front desk to run alone for 6 hours. So far it is voluntary, but I just may do it as a job in June when vacations come up. I have never earned any money (not counting the few tips at the Bay). Everyone should earn some money sometimes during their lifetime. Working at the desk has made many friends. They no longer think I am snooty.

Haven't had time to read or study. Ernest H. seems far, far removed. People are like planets - coming close and then moving away. But important ones usually return again and again.

Another new experience for me is having men call to # invite me to go out. Of course I don't go, but it is morale building to be invited. I never counted on that after 65. So glad Sidney is still living while I get used to the idea, and think it over.

Georgie sent a picture you might want to see - Marjorie Bump age 15. you won't be wanting it until you return, I am sure.

Sopra il assensore é uno ragazzo da la dominican Republic. Lo parla con gli in espanol. Lo leggo ha Palabra Diaria ogni giorno. Desidero che lei sta in España piuttosto che in Roma. lo potrei scrivere meglio in español.

Mi dispiace signore. Non vuol dirlo. Sono lieto di sapere che lei visiterà Roma. Quanto tempo resterete in Roma?

Come Sempre, Lucia

[This is a description of the envelope that held this letter. The envelope has a top flap and a bottom flap. The top flap contains a border that is alternating, spaced out, diagonal red and blue stripes. In the top left corner of the top flap, there are three horizontal lines that are vertically stacked on top of one another and are meant to have text written on them. On the top line is the text "Mrs S.

Main," on the middle line is the text "Princess Issena Hotel Room 330," and on the bottom line is the text "Daytona Beach, FLA." In the top right corner of the top flap, there is a postage stamp. Within this postage stamp, there is a headshot of JFK in the middle, a representation of a commercial airplane behind him, the text "John F. Kennedy" in the lower left corner, the text "U-S-A" in red in the lower right corner, and the text "11¢ AIR MAIL" in the upper left corner. In the middle of the top flap, the address of the letter's recipient is written, split into four different lines that are ordered vertically. The top line says "Mr Don. St John," the second line says "Viale Aurelio Saffi 70," the third line says "Roma," and the fourth line says "Italia." Across the bottom middle of the top flap, the text "AÉROGRAMME - PAR AVION" is there in red. Also on the bottom middle is another stamp, this time circular, that contains the text "DAYTONA BEACH FLA." around the inside of its rim are three vertically stacked lines of text in its middle with "APR 19" as the top line, "AM" as the middle line, and "1967" as the bottom line. In the bottom left corner of the top flap is yet another stamp, this time rectangular, that contains the text "ALWAYS USE ZIP CODE." The bottom flap contains traces of the border pattern of the top flap on its bottom. In the bottom middle of the bottom flap, there exists the text "NO ENCLOSURES PERMITTED" as well as six vertically stacked and wavy lines right above the text. The bottom left corner of the bottom flap contains a circular stamp that within it contains a smaller circle. Within the space between the outside and inside circle, the text "POSTAGE ROMA A." exists. Within the smaller circle, there are three vertically stacked lines of text; the top line contains the text "14 - 15," the middle line contains the text "21 - IV," and the bottom line contains the text "1967."]
