Dear Don,

I hope your trouble with Danny isn't too much.

My emotions have been up and down too.

Sidney went down again pretty low - but is up again in his chair. This could go on and on. He thinks I am a new girl friend, which is good. He also sees many people who aren't there. Did I tell you he has identified with old John W. Rockefeller - whose autographed picture he keeps by his bed. He believes himself a millionaire. (J.W. was a patient in the old days)

I have shut Ernest up in the bathroom draw where he must stay. No more bad dreams. I have told

J.D. to stay far away - at least for now. As no more complications.

I will concentrate on the switch board and getting Sidney safely over the border. I walk and swim in the pool, and go to the arena. Helen B is in Oregon. Irene Bennett is talking again about my driving to Mexico in July with her. Wish I could.

Don wanted to tell you I am on top of things again. He would is good and interesting and a challenge. I like it.

As no more complications I will concentrate on the switch board and getting Sidney safely over the border. I walk, and swim in the pool, and go to the ocean. Helen B is in Oregon. Irene Bennett is talking again about my driving to Mexico in July with her. Wish I could.
