Dear Don,

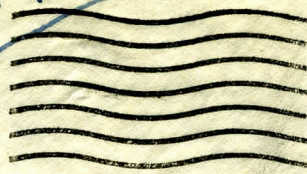

I feel as you do about the war. There is a seldom ad melted spot in me that thrills to "Crash Bang" - especially when the good guys win. I love explosions - no matter how early because the good guys always win and there is plenty of "Crash Bang". I enjoyed having Ernest like war and punching people.
In my mind he remained the good guy who would always win. He probably did - tho I'm not sure.

The tempo of my life slips up.
More good times with old friends.
No "mens" Every now and then someone tells me of your questions. Saw Mrs Russell at the Country Club Wednesday night. I always say, yes - your friend me. There it ends. My Cuernavaca friend is here. Will plan to go back with her Sept 1st. By then my blood count will be needing mountains - so it may as well be Mexico as N. Carolina.
Love
Marq -
