

Dear Don & Ruth - Oct 25, 1969
— This has been a fine trip on a nice train - Santa Fe's San Francisco chief. I've slept well so you'll well and fresh - one hr. from San. F.
Will fly down to Monterey.

Am enjoying Tolstoy
by Henri Troyat.
Wish someone like Troyat could have written about E. H. rather than dull Baker. For the first time I realize I should not have burned E's letters. People are different to different people. — Like Tolstoy - E. was many people.

Reading about Tolstoy, I see E. in a different perspective. Think I will spend this winter reading and re-reading Tolstoy.

Love - Marge

I am Marge to more people now than Marge - Two friends call me Bumpy.
