My dear Ann,

Just a quick note to tell you my latest quick decision and move.

I have left Winter Park Towers -

An unwise legislature passed a law in Florida that will tax the Towers $94,000. Those who live there with an income over $5,000, including Social Security, will have to pay it.

When I got my bill May 15th, I went to the office and gave my 30 day notice. It has taken me just a week to wind up affairs there - just my furniture is shipped and come to Monterey. Yes - it cost me money - but not as much as it would to stay. It was a rewarding and maturing experience - but evidently I am not supposed to sit down and wait for my arteries to harden.

It is wonderful to be here with George and the boys. The weather is delightfully cool and I feel my energies rising.

I hope all is well with you. My plans are still in flux. This time I will wait to see which way the wind wants to blow me. I think perhaps the last few years have taken me from age 19 to 29.

I still have a long way to go.

Love to you and Ruth -
Marge.
